SPANISH CAVA

Have a "Sparkling" Summer!

FAMILIA OLIVEDA

Faithful to the méthode Champenoise, discovered in the 17th century by Dom Perignon, the Familia Oliveda cellars produce the most delicate Cavas, extraordinary and unique. Must from Macabeu, Xarel-lo and Parellada grapes, and must for the Rosat from Pinot Noir and Grenache grapes are fermented in the bottle, which sees them transformed into light, elegant and exquisitely aromatic Cavas.

This is a one-time buy, but quantities are fairly plentiful.

AWESOME "2004 BAROLO'S"!

"Quite frankly, I have never tasted young Barolos with this level of sweet, perfumed fruit and silky, ripe tannins. These are wines of extraordinary elegance, balance and finesse that may come as a pleasant surprise to readers used to the tannic behemoths of the past. Quality is outstanding from top to bottom. Readers will find everything from a number of superb entry-level wines to utterly profound luxury bottlings and everything in between. The vintage coincides with a growing sense of maturity among growers, especially those of the younger generation. A number of producers have made their finest wines yet." Robert Parker Jr. – The Wine Advocate
